Dear Distinguished Delegates and Guests

The organizing Committee warmly welcomes our distinguished delegates and guests to the IISRO Multi Conferences 2013 held during September 07, 2013, Pattaya, Thailand.

IISRO Multi Conferences 2013 is organized by International Innovative Scientific and Research Organization. These conferences are aimed at discussing with all of you the wide range of problems encountered in present and future high technologies. IISRO Multi Conferences 2013 is organized to gather members of our international community scientists so that researchers from around the world can present their leading-edge work, expanding our community's knowledge and insight into the significant challenges currently being addressed in that research.

This proceeding records the fully referred papers presented at the conference. The main conference themes and tracks are Computer Science and IT, Management, Biochemical, Pharmaceutical Sciences and Chemical Engineering. The main goal of these events is to provide international scientific forums for exchange of new ideas in a number of fields that interact in-depth through discussions with their peers from around the world.

The conference has solicited and gathered technical research submissions related to all aspects of major conference themes and tracks. The program has been structured to favor interactions among attendees coming from many diverse horizons, scientifically, geographically, from academic and from industry.

We would like to thank the program chairs, organization staff, and the members of the program committee for their work. Thanks also go to the editors for their wonderful editorial service to this proceeding.

We are grateful to all those who have contributed to the success of IISRO Multi Conferences 2013. We hope that all participants and other interested readers benefit scientifically from the proceedings and also find it stimulating in the process. Finally, we would like to wish you success in your technical presentations and social networking.

We hope you have a unique, rewarding and enjoyable week at IISRO Multi Conferences 2013, Pattaya, Thailand.

With our warmest regards,

The Organizing Committees
